

The Highland Bowl

12,392 feet

The Essentials

- Straps (for carrying your skis)
- Comfortable Ski Apparel
- Water
- Neck Gator (for wind/snow)

The Bowl

The Highland Bowl officially opened to the public during the 2002-03 ski season.

Getting There

Take Exhibition Lift, then Loge Peak Lift. Expect the duration of your Bowl experience to take 2-3 hours from Exhibition, to the top, and back down to Exhibition.

The Facts

From the top of the Loge Peak lift to the summit is a 782 vertical foot hike. A snow cat is there to take hikers up 1/3 of the way (optional), but due to COIVD, the cat is not running this year.
